

TO: Connecticut Chiefs of Police
Connecticut Police Training Officers
Connecticut State Police Resident Troopers

FROM: Brian Enns
Field Services Training Division

DATE: December 7, 2021

SUBJECT: Body Worn Cameras: Tactics for Effective Use & Review

TUITION: $75.00

COURSE ANNOUNCEMENT

The Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection, Police Officer Standards and Training Council's Field Services Training Division is offering a (1) day training seminar on "Body Worn Cameras: Tactics for Effective Use & Review" on Wednesday, March 16, 2022.

The training will take place at the Connecticut Police Academy, 285 Preston Avenue, Meriden, CT from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm. The seminar will be presented by the J. Harris Academy of Police Training.

The seminar is a "Best Practices" course on the use and review of video/digital evidence obtained through the effective utilization of police body-worn camera (BWC) and in-car video systems. The foundational elements of this course are established through resources such as but not limited to: "The Act Concerning Police Accountability", the United States Constitution, the Bill of rights, established case law and "best practices" within the profession.

The course is custom made to introduce the officers who will be utilizing body-worn cameras (BWC) or in-car video equipment as to how to use it effectively in the field to capture critical evidence needed for their case as well as to improve police community relations through transparency.

The class is limited to (50) attendees. Please complete a registration form from the web and fax it [(203) 238-6119] or email it to Brian Enns at Brian.Enns@ct.gov no later February 11, 2022. If you have any questions, please contact the Field Services Division at 203-427-2626.

Students successfully completing the course will receive Review Training Credit in the following areas:

Area 502D Body-worn (BWC)

(7hrs)

Lunch may be purchased at nearby restaurants. Proper, business attire required.

DISCLAIMER: The Police Officer Standards and Training Council (POSTC) makes every effort, within its ability and resources, to provide the highest quality, most relevant in-service training programs available at minimum cost to all Connecticut police officers and agencies. However, POSTC does not provide legal advice, and does not endorse the accuracy or completeness of specific in-service training programs provided by each of its many contractors and training providers. The materials and opinions of individual providers offered during the course of in-service training are those of the instructor alone, and do not necessarily represent the position of the Police Officer Standards and Training Council or the State of Connecticut. Given the multitude of disparate factual scenarios with which law enforcement personnel are presented in the discharge of their official duties, students and sponsoring agencies are strongly advised and encouraged to seek the advice and counsel of their own legal advisors before implementing concepts or adopting specific measures discussed or recommended during in-service training sessions.

Training on the Web: www.ct.gov/POST

WES12/07/21